

The New York Public Library
Carl H. Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle

Guide to the

C. M. Trelawny Irving manuscript material

1910

Pforz Ms

Summary

Creator: Irving, C. M. Trelawny (Charles Maxwell Trelawny)

Title: C. M. Trelawny Irving manuscript material

Date: 1910

Size: 2 items

Abstract: Charles Maxwell Trelawny Irving, British government official. He was the great-grandson of Edward John Trelawny, the writer and friend of Shelley and Byron. Irving's grandmother was Zella, Trelawny's daughter by his Greek wife Tersitza. · To William Michael Rossetti, art critic and literary editor : 2 letters : -- 1 autograph letter signed : 28 May 1910 : (T'ANA 0015) : from 15, Redcliffe Square, South Kensington, S. W. (printed stationery); begins, "Some time ago I saw in the Daily Chronicle that in the course of an interview which you had accorded to a representative of that paper that Edward John Trelawny was a man whose memory should not be allowed to die." -- 1 autograph letter signed : 30 May 1910 : (T'ANA 0016) : from 15, Redcliffe Square, South Kensington, S. W. (printed stationery); begins, "Very many thanks for your letter of the 29th. I am acquainted with your interesting 'Reminiscences' but have not read the Athenaeum articles"; with discussion of the Trelawny family.

Access: Restricted access.

Preferred citation: C. M. Trelawny Irving manuscript material : 2 items, Carl H. Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Charles Maxwell Trelawny Irving, British government official. He was the great-grandson of Edward John Trelawny, the writer and friend of Shelley and Byron. Irving's grandmother was Zella, Trelawny's daughter by his Greek wife Tersitza.

Scope and Content Note

· To William Michael Rossetti, art critic and literary editor : 2 letters : -- 1 autograph letter signed : 28 May 1910 : (T'ANA 0015) : from 15, Redcliffe Square, South Kensington, S. W. (printed stationery); begins, "Some time ago I saw in the Daily Chronicle that in the course of an interview which you had accorded to a representative of that paper that Edward John Trelawny was a man whose memory should not be allowed to die." -- 1 autograph letter signed : 30 May 1910 : (T'ANA 0016) : from 15, Redcliffe Square, South Kensington, S. W. (printed stationery); begins, "Very many thanks for your letter of the 29th. I am acquainted with your interesting 'Reminiscences' but have not read the Athenaeum articles"; with discussion of the Trelawny family.

Key Terms

Titles

Irving, C. M. Trelawny : manuscript material

Names

Irving, C. M. Trelawny (Charles Maxwell Trelawny)
Trelawny, Edward John, 1792-1881