

The New York Public Library
Carl H. Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle

Guide to the

Two manuscript poems on the death of Queen Caroline

Pforz (Caroline) Tracts V 3

Summary

Title: Two manuscript poems on the death of Queen Caroline

Size: 2 pages (within volume)

Abstract: Two poems in ink, bound into volume 3 of a collection of tracts on Queen Caroline. "On the Death of Her Gracious Majesty Queen Caroline," seven quatrains, begins, "Creature of Dust, frail Insect of an Hour / Can nought inform thee of thy certain Doom . . ."; bound immediately preceding tract 3. "On the Death of Queen Caroline," six quatrains, begins, "Daughter of Brunswick's Warrior Line, With whom entomb'd thou soon shall be . . ."; bound immediately preceding tract 4. Both poems apparently in the same unidentified hand; they appear to be fair copies. It is uncertain if they are original; no published version of either could be traced.

Access: Restricted access.

Preferred citation: Two manuscript poems on the death of Queen Caroline, Carl H. Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle, The New York Public Library

Scope and Content Note

Two poems in ink, bound into volume 3 of a collection of tracts on Queen Caroline. "On the Death of Her Gracious Majesty Queen Caroline," seven quatrains, begins, "Creature of Dust, frail Insect of an Hour / Can nought inform thee of thy certain Doom . . ."; bound immediately preceding tract 3. "On the Death of Queen Caroline," six quatrains, begins, "Daughter of Brunswick's Warrior Line, With whom entomb'd thou soon shall be . . ."; bound immediately preceding tract 4. Both poems apparently in the same unidentified hand; they appear to be fair copies. It is uncertain if they are original; no published version of either could be traced.

Key Terms

Names

Caroline, Queen, consort of George IV, King of Great Britain, 1768-1821 -- Poetry.