

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Methodist Society of the City of New York records

1820-1851

MssCol NYGB 18038

Summary

Creator: Methodist Society

Title: Methodist Society of the City of New York records

Date: 1820-1851

Size: .21 linear feet (1 box)

Abstract: The Methodist Society of New York was formed in 1820 by 300 seceding members of the Methodist Episcopal Church after disputes over administrative issues and the empowerment of the laity to weigh in on Church matters. William M. Stillwell served as the first pastor of the Methodist Society, out of their church on Chrystie Street. The collection records marriages performed by Rev. Stillwell between 1818 and 1851. Witnesses' names are also listed

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Methodist Society of the City of New York records, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Related Materials:

Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Key Terms

Occupations

Clergy -- New York (State) -- New York (N.Y.)

Titles

Gift of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Marriage records

Geographic Names

New York (N.Y.) -- Church records and registers

New York (N.Y.) -- Genealogy

Names

Methodist Society

Stillwell, William M

New York Genealogical and Biographical Society Collection