

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Letters of Connecticut families

1853-1864

MssCol 185462

Processed by Susan P. Waide, 2021.

Summary

Title: Letters of Connecticut families

Date: 1853-1864

Size: .01 linear feet (1 folder)

Source: Anonymous gift, 2004.

Abstract: The collection consists of ten miscellaneous letters, most of them written by or directed to persons living in Connecticut during the 1850s and 1860s, touching on family matters, friendship, illness, employment, and the Civil War. Three brief letters written by relatives of Squire Gilbert and Warren Gilbert, dated 1853-1857, are directed to them at Westport, Connecticut. Two letters are addressed to Moss family members at Monroe, Connecticut, consisting of a letter written jointly by Jesse and Narcissa Moss at Jubilee, Illinois, 1861, with two loose pencil drawings of a bird and a squirrel on similar paper stock, and a letter written by Amos Moss at West Cheshire, Connecticut, 1863. Also present are five letters written by men and women, 1861-1864 and undated, which are only partly identifiable. Most items are accompanied by typed transcripts.

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Letters of Connecticut families, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Language of the Material: English

Processing note: Processed by Susan P. Waide, 2021.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of ten miscellaneous letters, most of them written by or directed to persons living in Connecticut during the 1850s and 1860s, touching on family matters, friendship, illness, employment, and the Civil War. Three brief letters written by relatives of Squire Gilbert and Warren Gilbert, dated 1853-1857, are directed to them at Westport, Connecticut. Two letters are addressed to Moss family members at Monroe, Connecticut, consisting of a letter written jointly by Jesse and Narcissa Moss at Jubilee, Illinois, 1861, with two loose pencil drawings of a bird and a squirrel on similar paper stock, and a letter written by Amos Moss at West Cheshire, Connecticut, 1863. Also present are five letters written by men and women, 1861-1864 and undated, which are only partly identifiable. Most items are accompanied by typed transcripts.

Key Terms

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Drawings (visual works)

Letters (correspondence)

Subjects

Family life -- Connecticut -- History -- 19th century

Farm life -- Illinois -- Peoria County -- History -- 19th century

Geographic Names

United States -- History -- Civil War, 1861-1865 -- Correspondence

Names

Gilbert family -- Correspondence

Moss family -- Correspondence