

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Foster Parmelee papers

ca. 1954-ca. 1972

MssCol 2340

Summary

Creator: Parmelee, Foster

Title: Foster Parmelee papers

Date: ca. 1954-ca. 1972

Size: 11 linear feet (22 boxes, 1 package)

Abstract: Foster Parmelee was a New York City businessman and adult educator. He was a charter member of the United World Federalists, secretary in the Campaign for World Government, and participated in many conventions of the world government movement. Collection consists of correspondence, notes, poster, sound recording, printed matter, and other papers reflecting Parmelee's involvement in the world government movement. Correspondence, ca. 1954-1972, concerns meetings, conventions and activities of the various organizations he supported. Printed matter includes circulars, reports, memoranda, newsletters, bulletins, pamphlets, and reprints.

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Foster Parmelee papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Foster Parmelee was a New York City businessman and adult educator. He was a charter member of the United World Federalists, secretary in the Campaign for World Government, and participated in many conventions of the world government movement.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of correspondence, notes, poster, sound recording, printed matter, and other papers reflecting Parmelee's involvement in the world government movement. Correspondence, ca. 1954-1972, concerns meetings, conventions and activities of the various organizations he supported. Printed matter includes circulars, reports, memoranda, newsletters, bulletins, pamphlets, and reprints.

Key Terms

Subjects

Federal government
International organization

Occupations

Political activists

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Posters
Sound recordings

Names

Parmelee, Foster
Campaign for World Government (Organization)
United World Federalists (U.S.)