

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Argus logbook

1813

MssCol 6374

Summary

Creator: Argus (Brig)

Title: Argus logbook

Date: 1813

Size: .13 linear feet (1 volume)

Abstract: This logbook was kept on board the Argus, a United States Navy ship commanded by Brigadier William H. Allen. Entries date from April 7-August 1, 1813 and describe cruising in Long Island Sound and past Sandy Hook, New Jersey and the Battery (southern tip of Manhattan Island); sailing for L'Orient, France on June 19th with William H. Crawford, America's Minister to France, on board; burning the British schooner Salamanca; traveling from L'Orient to Groix and Scilly islands; cruising in the English Channel; and capturing the schooner Matilda and the brig Richard. Log entries end while Argus was in the Irish Sea, two weeks before she was taken by the British ship HMS Pelican

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Argus logbook, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Key Terms

Geographic Names

English Channel

Groix (France)

Isles of Scilly (England)

Lorient (France)

United States -- History -- War of 1812

Subjects

Logbooks

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Ships' logs

Names

Argus (Brig)

Allen, William Henry, 1784-1813

Crawford, William Harris, 1772-1834

Matilda (Schooner : 1784)

Richard (Brig)

Salamanca (Schooner)

United States. Navy