

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Robert Troup letters sent 1782-1826

MssCol 6413

Compiled by Susan P. Waide, 2014

Summary

Creator: Troup, Robert, 1757-1832

Title: Robert Troup letters sent

Date: 1782-1826

Size: .1 linear feet (1 folder)

Source: Gift of J. Pierpont Morgan, 1899 and purchase.

Abstract: Robert Troup (1757-1832) was a lawyer and land agent from New York State. He served as an officer with the American army during the Revolution, practiced law in Albany and New York City, was elected to the State Assembly, and in 1796 was appointed judge of the United States district court of New York. From 1801 to 1832 he was land agent of the Pulteney Estate of England for properties in western New York. Collection consists of letters sent from Albany, Geneva and New York, New York, primarily to attorneys, pertaining to legal, land and other business matters.

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Robert Troup letters sent, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Processing note: Compiled by Susan P. Waide, 2014

Related Materials:

Forms part of Ford collection

Creator History

Robert Troup (1757-1832) was a lawyer and land agent from New York State. He served as an officer with the American army during the Revolution, practiced law in Albany and New York City, was elected to the State Assembly, and in 1796 was appointed judge of the United States district court of New York. From 1801 to 1832 he was land agent of the Pulteney Estate of England for properties in western New York.

Custodial History

Most material originally received as part of the Ford collection.

Scope and Content Note

Robert Troup (1757-1832) was a lawyer and land agent from New York State. He served as an officer with the American army during the Revolution, practiced law in Albany and New York City, was elected to the State Assembly, and in 1796 was appointed judge of the United States district court of New York. From 1801 to 1832 he was land agent of the Pulteney Estate of England for properties in western New York. Collection consists of letters sent from Albany, Geneva and New York, New York, primarily to attorneys, pertaining to legal, land and other business matters.

Key Terms

Subjects

Law -- New York (State)

Real property -- New York (State)

Occupations

Lawyers

Soldiers

Names

Troup, Robert, 1757-1832

Pulteney Estate