

The New York Public Library
New York Public Library Archives

Guide to the

Harry Miller Lydenberg records

1921

MssArc 5109

Summary

Creator: New York Public Library. Research Libraries. Director's Office

Title: Harry Miller Lydenberg records

Date: 1921

Size: 3.5 cubic feet

Abstract: Harry Miller Lydenberg (1874-1960) started at the Lenox Library, then served as administrative assistant to John Shaw Billings from 1899 to 1908, helping to plan the Central Building for the newly consolidated New York Public Library. He was the first Chief Reference Librarian from 1908 to 1927, and in 1928 became Assistant Director under Edwin H. Anderson, assuming the directorship in 1934. Records consist of 1921 Census of Books. Other Lydenberg records are included in Central Administration collections.

Access: Advance notice required.

Conditions Governing Use: All rights reserved. Permission to quote must be obtained in writing from the New York Public Library

Preferred citation: Harry Miller Lydenberg records, New York Public Library Archives, The New York Public Library

Related Materials:

Lydenberg's personal papers are located in Manuscripts Division

Creator History

Harry Miller Lydenberg (1874-1960) started at the Lenox Library, then served as administrative assistant to John Shaw Billings from 1899 to 1908, helping to plan the Central Building for the newly consolidated New York Public Library. He was the first Chief Reference Librarian from 1908 to 1927, and in 1928 became Assistant Director under Edwin H. Anderson, assuming the directorship in 1934.

Scope and Content Note

Records consist of 1921 Census of Books. Other Lydenberg records are included in Central Administration collections.

Key Terms

Subjects

Libraries -- New York (State) -- New York

Library resources

Reference services (Libraries)

Research libraries -- New York (State) -- New York

Names

New York Public Library. Research Libraries. Director's Office

Lydenberg, Harry Miller, 1874-1960